

Home Page

- Introduction: "Hello! Welcome to the Ultimate P100 List Library, created by SLeNDeR_KiLLeR." It explains that you can click Killers or Survivors to see the full roster lists <sup>3</sup>.
- P100 Submission Link: There is a bold link "P100" (in a list) prompting users to add a P100.
- FAQ: A FAQ section with Q&A, e.g. "When was this website created?" (answer: end of 2024) and "Where can I find the credits?" (answer: art credits are below each image or in the credits page) <sup>4</sup>.
- Submission Instructions: A section titled "READ BEFORE SUBMITTING:" states that the owner accepts P100 submissions via a Google Form or Discord <sup>5</sup>. It lists requirements (e.g. screenshots must be from the current lobby) and shows example screenshots (with labels "Image"). It also notes:

"The google form, and the discord server, to submit your P100(s)" <sup>6</sup>

and advises patience after submission. All visible text (buttons, headings, instructions) on the home page is as cited above <sup>3</sup> <sup>5</sup> <sup>6</sup>.

Killers Section

Clicking Killers (or scrolling) brings up the "Welcome to the P100 Killers kingdom" section <sup>7</sup>. Its content:

- A heading "Welcome to the P100 Killers kingdom" <sup>7</sup>.
- Instruction text: "You can find each list's original creator on the credits page. Click on any killer icon to see the current list of P100s..." <sup>8</sup>.
- A list of killer icons: each icon is labeled with a killer name. The visible names of all killers listed are:
  - Trapper
  - Wraith
  - Billy
  - Nurse
  - Myers
  - Hag
  - Doctor
  - bubba
  - Huntress
  - Freddy Krueger

- Pig
- Clown
- Spirit
- The Legion
- Plague
- GhostFace
- Demogorgon
- Oni
- DeathSlinger
- Pyramid Head
- Blight
- Twins
- Trickster
- nEMESIS
- PinHead
- artist
- sadako
- dredge
- wesker
- knight
- skull merchant
- singularity
- xenomorph

These names (from Trapper through Xenomorph) appear under the killer icons <sup>9</sup> <sup>10</sup> . (Each name is shown as visible text under its icon.)

In summary, the Killers section is one long page segment containing the heading and list above, with each killer name as listed and clickable.

Survivors Section

Clicking Survivors (or scrolling) leads to the “Welcome to the P100 Survivors kingdom” section <sup>11</sup> . This section includes:

- Heading: “Welcome to the P100 Survivors kingdom” <sup>11</sup> .
- Instruction: “You can find each list’s original creator on the credits page. Click on any survivor icon to see the current list of P100s. Legendary cosmetics are considered the same as the base survivor...” <sup>12</sup> .
- A grid of survivor icons, each labeled with a name. The visible survivor names are:
  - Dwight
  - Meg
  - Claudette
  - Jake
  - Nea
  - Bill
  - Laurie

- ace
- feng
- david
- Quentin
- Tapp
- Kate
- Adam Francis
- Jeff
- Jane
- Ashley
- Nancy
- steve
- YUI
- Zarina
- Cheryl
- Felix Richter
- Elodie
- Yun-Jin
- jill
- leon
- mikaela
- Jonah
- yoichi
- haddie
- ada
- rebecca
- vittorio
- thalita
- renato
- gabriel soma
- nicolas cage
- ellen ripley
- alan wake
- sable ward
- Aestri/Baermar
- lara croft
- trevor
- taurie cain
- Orelia Rose

These names are all visible under the survivor icons <sup>13</sup> <sup>14</sup> . (For example, Dwight, Meg, Claudette, Jake, Nea, Bill appear at the top of the list <sup>13</sup> , and names like Gabriel Soma, Nicolas Cage, Ellen Ripley appear near the bottom <sup>14</sup> .)

Thus the Survivors section mirrors the Killers section: a heading, description, and a list of all survivor characters as text under icons.

Killer P100 Pages (Example)

Each killer icon links to a P100 page for that character. For example, the P100 Trapper page has:

- A sub-heading “P100 TRAPPER” (an H3 heading) <sup>15</sup> .
- An image credit line “Art by: Emilu” above the content <sup>16</sup> .
- Introductory text: “Welcome on the P100 Trapper page. Here, you will find the list, as well as multiple artwork/renders made by wonderful artists. Click on the image to go to the artist’s page directly. You can also see their name below each fanart. Reminder that it isn’t ordered! You can find links at the bottom of the page to contact me...” <sup>17</sup> .
- The list of players: It shows “The P100 Trapper list starts here:” and then a bullet list of player names, e.g. PallyStream, Mikaelanator, NativeManiax, etc. <sup>18</sup> . (All names in that list are visible as plain text.)

In general, each killer’s P100 page follows this same pattern: a heading “P100 [KillerName]”, optional artist credit (“Art by ...”), a welcome paragraph, and then “The P100 [KillerName] list starts here:” followed by a bullet list of many player names. We have examined Trapper’s page as an example <sup>19</sup> <sup>18</sup> . Other killer pages (Wraith, Hillbilly, Nurse, etc.) have the same structure with their respective names and lists.

Survivor P100 Pages (Example)

Similarly, each survivor icon links to a P100 page for that survivor. For example, the P100 Dwight page includes:

- A heading “P100 dwight” <sup>20</sup> .
- Intro text: “Welcome on the P100 Dwight page. Here, you will find the list, as well as multiple artwork/renders made by wonderful artists. Click on the image to go to the artist’s page directly. You can also see their name below each fanart. Reminder that it isn’t ordered! You can find links at the bottom of the page to contact me...” <sup>21</sup> .
- The P100 list: It states “The P100 Dwight list starts here:” and then lists dozens of player names (e.g. shogunthesebaals, Tre, Ryxn9001YT, ... Ozi) as bullet items <sup>22</sup> <sup>23</sup> .

All survivor P100 pages follow this format. In each case, the content consists of the heading (“P100 [Name]”), a short introduction with instructions, and then a bullet list of player names. For brevity we cite Dwight’s page as representative <sup>21</sup> <sup>22</sup> , noting that every character (both killers and survivors) has a similar P100 page.

Credits Page

The Credits section is at the bottom (linked via “Credits” in the nav). It contains:

- A fanart image credit (e.g. “Art by zmpixie”) <sup>25</sup> and another image credit <sup>26</sup> .
- A welcome note from the creator: “Hello! Thank you for coming to the credits section. I, the one who came up the idea of this website, and made it, am ~~steve~~ Slender. A variety streamer... I was of course not alone on this. A lot of people, players, artists, and friends helped me. Even if I was the one to write down the names... Everything you see... would not be there without them.” This paragraph continues on about artists’ credits <sup>27</sup> .

- A thank-you list: The page lists individuals by name who helped with each character's list (e.g. "Witheringspark, for the Cheryl list; VeriHiHi, for the Leon list; YoichiBear, for the Yoichi list; ... Brandyn, for the Unknown list; etc.") <sup>28</sup> .
- Social links: At the very bottom, it shows icons labeled "Discord server" and "X" (formerly Twitter). The text says: "Links of my social networks, if you wish to contact me about anything on this site:" followed by bullet icons for Discord and X <sup>29</sup> .

Sources: The above summary is based directly on the content of p100library.com <sup>3</sup> <sup>7</sup> <sup>11</sup> <sup>19</sup> <sup>21</sup> <sup>24</sup> <sup>29</sup> , which shows the full textual content of each section.
